JAMES RINCHERE, PA

Physician Assistant | Healthcare Executive | International Medical Graduate

James Rinchere, PA, is an accomplished physician assistant, international medical graduate, and healthcare executive with over 15 years of clinical and healthcare leadership experience. His expertise includes family medicine, internal medicine, correctional healthcare, skilled nursing, and medical practice management.

As Chief Executive Officer of ROCAB Health Inc., he combines clinical expertise with strategic leadership to advance high-quality, patient-centered healthcare. His professional experience includes 121 Medical Center, Royal Palm Beach Medical Center, NaphCare, and Preferred Family Care.

Dr. Rinchere earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from Escuela Latinoamericana de Medicina in Cuba in 2011. He previously practiced medicine in Haiti, providing comprehensive patient care and mentoring healthcare professionals.

Licensed as a physician assistant in Florida and Arizona, he holds ACLS and BLS certifications and is certified in Medical Spanish. Fluent in English, French, Haitian Creole, and Spanish, with basic proficiency in German, he is dedicated to delivering compassionate, culturally sensitive healthcare and improving access to quality medical services.